The Embassy of the Argentine Republic presents its compliment to the Thai Chamber of Commerce and has the honour to inform that the Argentine Investment and Trade Promotion Agency has launched a new tool with key information for investors interested in developing their projects in Argentina, called "Where in Argentina".

This interactive tool systematizes various data to facilitate access of potential investors to the main characteristics of each productive sector in Argentina. The site assembles detailed information as follows:

1. Structure of taxation by activities and by province.
2. Economic activity by product or sector
3. Logistic infrastructure: geo-location of ports, airports and Industrial parks.
4. Energy and railway transportation: electrical, railway and energy and mineral resources network map.

"Where in Argentina" is available via the following website:
<http://www.inversionycomercio.org.ar/en/index.php?lang=en>

Therefore, the Embassy requests for your kind help in disseminating the announcement to companies and any other body interested in this matter.

In expressing its thankfulness for the kind attention given to the above matter, the Embassy of the Argentine Republic avails itself of this opportunity to renew the Thai Chamber of Commerce the assurances of its highest consideration.
